

Anonymous survey re Clinicians perceptions of the double balloon catheter use for induction of labour at term

This is a completely anonymous survey you can fill out

It's not compulsory. If you fill it in, please put it in the green box near the front desk in the ward

This short survey is letting us your views on various aspects of double balloon catheter insertion and removal

Q1 Date ____/____/____

Q2 What is your role at Royal Prince Alfred Hospital?

Midwife Yes No

CMS midwife Yes No

Student Midwife Yes No

Midwife on casual pool Yes No

Medical resident Yes No

Obstetric Registrar Yes No

Obstetrician Yes No

Q3: Are you familiar with the current RPAH policy 'IOL - Insertion of Double Balloon Intra-cervical Catheter to Assist with Cervical Ripening'? Yes No

Q4 a): Are you trained to insert the DBC? Yes No

Q4 b): If you answered yes, where and how were you trained? _____

Q4 c): If you answered no, would you like to be? Yes No

Q5: Do you think the DBC is easy to insert? Yes No

Anonymous survey re Clinicians perceptions of the double balloon catheter use for induction of labour at term

Q6: On average how many attempts at insertion does it take to successfully insert the DBC? Yes No

Q7: Do you think on most occasions the DBC is effective at ripening the cervix? Yes No

Q8: Do you feel the current timing of insertion and removal of the DBC at RPAH needs to be improved? Yes No

Q9: Post DBC insertion, do you think it would be appropriate for women to be discharged home with the catheter in situ? Yes No

Your participation in this survey is much appreciate

Anonymous survey re pregnant women’s perceptions of the double balloon catheter use for induction of labour at term

This is a completely anonymous survey you can fill out while you are in hospital

It’s not compulsory. If you fill it in, please put it in the green box near the front desk in the ward

This short survey is letting us your views on various aspects of double balloon catheter insertion and removal

Q1 Date ____/____/____

Q2 Was the purpose of the DBC explained to you? Yes No

Questions 3 to 11	Unbearable pain	bearable pain	Somewhat painful
How would you rate the painfulness of the insertion of the catheter?
Did you have vaginal prostaglandin(s) during your labour? i.e. 'Cervidil' or 'Prostin'?
Were you offered pain relief post catheter insertion?
If you answered yes above did you take the pain relief?
If you answered yes above was it effective?
Was a midwife or doctor able to break your waters around the front of the baby after removal of the catheter?
Did you feel the catheter was inserted and removed at an appropriate time of day?
If you were given the option of going home with the catheter and returning to RPAH the next day for removal would you have gone home rather than being admitted?
Would you consent to a DBC again if recommended?

© 2022 Waldron S. et al.